FULBRIGHT NGO LEADER PROGRAM

2022-2023

Since its inception in 1946, the Fulbright program has supported over 360 000 laureates, including 60 Nobel Prize recipients. The Franco-American Commission administers this prestigious program with the goal of fostering mobility of researchers, students and professionals between France and the United States. Over 20 000 laureates from the two countries have received Fulbright grants in the past 70 years.

ELIGIBILITY

- Candidates must be French citizens (dual Franco-American citizens are not eligible)
- Have at least a Bac+2 education level (equivalent to an Associate's Degree)
- Have at least five years of professional experience working in a management or senior management position at one or several French NGOs, associations, foundations or social & solidarity economy companies located in France.
- Be proficient in English (for reference, approximately B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). Grantees should be able to participate in professional discussions in English.
- Be officially invited by an American university, NGO, or foundation (a letter of invitation is required). Candidates are responsible for choosing their own affiliation and securing an invitation letter.
