Duke Law School is an ambitious, forward-thinking, and innovative institution whose mission is to prepare students for responsible and productive lives in the legal profession by providing a rigorous legal education within a collaborative, supportive and diverse environment. The Duke Law LLM Program is designed to introduce international law graduates to the U.S. legal system and to provide the opportunity to take advanced courses in specialized areas of law. LLM students can select courses from the full JD curriculum, including clinics and externships, and join extracurricular activities such as law journals and moot court teams. Duke's goal is to integrate LLM and JD students into the whole life of Duke Law School. Students may also take courses in other parts of the university, such as the Fuqua School of Business or the Sanford School of Public Policy. Duke also offers LLM students five certificate programs in Business Law, Environmental & Energy Law, Intellectual Property, Science & Technology Law, New Ventures & Entrepreneurship, and International Law to refine their research and career focus and maximize exposure to outstanding courses and instructors in their fields of interest. At Duke, you will find people who are equally enthusiastic about their intellectual life and academic studies as they are about their community and social life. Duke students are known for balancing hard work with fun, and intellectual engagement with purposeful living.

SPECIALIZATIONS & POPULAR PROGRAMS

Duke Law offers certificate programs for LLM students in Business Law, Environmental & Energy Law, Intellectual Property, Science & Technology Law, New Ventures & Entrepreneurship, and International Law.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Each year, Duke Law School is able to offer merit- and need-based assistance to highly qualified LLM applicants. This financial assistance generally takes the form of varying amounts of tuition scholarships. Applicants who wish to be considered for a Duke Law scholarship must submit a scholarship request letter with their LLM application. A Berkeley Law degree means studying law at a premier law schools in the United States, a public institution committed to academic excellence, social engagement, and intellectual and cultural diversity. It means coming to a place where we've been teaching LL.M. students for over 60 years; J.D. students, more than 100. It means learning from and engaging with internationally renowned faculty and distinguished scholars. It means creating long-lasting relationships with legal professionals from around the globe. And it means living in the San Francisco Bay Area, one of the world's most culturally and intellectually stimulating regions in California.

Berkeley Law has a diverse and constantly evolving curriculum, including our Intellectual Property, International Law, Social Justice, and Environmental Law programs. Faculty members—some of the best legal minds in the business—embody the school's commitment to academic vigor, multidisciplinary research, and intellectual diversity. One of the hallmarks of the J.D and LL.M. programs is the diversity of its student body, faculty, and curriculum. Such diversity is critical in a law school, which must train its graduates to analyze and interpret the law, reflect on competing viewpoints, present persuasive arguments in a variety of forums, and develop insightful and effective policies affecting broad swaths of society.

SPECIALIZATIONS & POPULAR PROGRAMS

Berkeley Law LL.M. students can specialize in the following areas: Business Law, Law & Technology, Public Law & Regulation, Environmental Law, Energy and Environmental Law, Energy & Clean Technology Law, International Law, Practical Lawyering, and Post Graduate Executive Leadership. Please note that distinct specializations are available by track.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Selective merit scholarships awarded to outstanding admitted LL.M. students each year. Scholarship decisions are made at the time of admission - no separate application needed. University of California Law San Francisco (formerly known as UC Hastings), is located in the heart of San Francisco, California. UC Law SF was established in 1878 as the first law department of the University of California system.

At UC Law SF we pride ourselves on our comprehensive academic curriculum, and our innovative, hands-on clinical legal education offerings. UC Law SF is also home to several nationally acclaimed legal centers including the Center for Negotiation & Dispute Resolution; Center for Gender & Refugee Studies, and the Center for WorkLife Law. Our cutting-edge programs, such as the Center for Innovation (C4i) and LexLab allow our students to take advantage of our key location in the center of the technology corridor of San Francisco and Silicon Valley. Our LLM class is a close-knit group who find social and academic support within their cohort, while creating lasting friendships with their Juris Doctor (JD) peers.

Our LLM students are fully integrated with all of our law students on campus. LLM students take two classes with their LLM cohort, and the rest with our JD students. With over 200 courses offered each year, few other US law schools offer as wide a selection of courses open to LLM and JD students alike, including our hands-on experiential courses and clinics. Ever since the first LLM class graduated from Michigan Law 135 years ago, we have provided a warm, intellectually stimulating, and internationally minded environment for students. Our kind and welcoming community is invested in the academic, professional, and personal successes of our LLM students.

Our LLM class is small to allow students to build meaningful and lasting connections with their classmates. Students learn from and pursue research under the guidance of preeminent faculty who spearhead innovative scholarship and reform across myriad legal areas. Our faculty are accessible and approachable, and they host seminars at their homes and invite students to group lunches. Our LLM students take classes with JD students to broaden their understanding of the US legal system and expand their networks.

The Law School is an architectural gem situated in the heart of the University of Michigan, one of the world's leading public research institutions. Upon arriving at Michigan Law, students join a University community of more than 50,000 graduate and undergraduate students from six continents. All of this is set in a vibrant university town with easy access to restaurants, cafes, shops, theaters, bars, athletic venues, and parks. This is the Michigan Difference.

SPECIALIZATIONS & POPULAR PROGRAMS

We offer a general LLM program that gives students the freedom to tailor their learning experience.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

All candidates are welcome to request consideration for financial aid from Michigan Law in the admission application form, and all admitted students who request financial aid in their admission applications are considered automatically for all available scholarships from Michigan Law. Scholarship decisions are based on an admitted student's academic and professional merit and future potential in pursuing a distinguished legal career.

Founded by Thomas Jefferson in 1819, UVA Law is the second oldest continuously operating law school in the United States. We are known for fostering an academic and collegial environment that closely connects students and faculty, and student satisfaction is consistently cited among the highest in American law schools. UVA Law is also perennially ranked among the top 10 law schools in the country by U.S. News & World Report.

Our LL.M. program provides an American legal education to lawyers who have obtained their first law degree in their home countries. By maintaining a small and highly selective cohort of fewer than 50 students, we ensure a supportive and personalized learning environment. The curriculum offers a broad introduction to American law and legal theory, as well as advanced training in specialized areas tailored to students' career goals and interests.

SPECIALIZATIONS & POPULAR PROGRAMS

21 academic concentrations including: Democracy and Civil Rights, Economics and Social Science, International and Comparative Law, Law and Business. UVA Law offers 24 clinics including: Civil Rights, Community Organization and Social Enterprise, Immigration Law, Innocence Project, International Human Rights Law

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Law School awards a small number of Dean's Scholarships to exceptional LL.M. candidates, in recognition of their academic and professional achievements and potential for outstanding contributions to academia, public service, or the legal profession. The highly selective Dean's Scholarships are the most prestigious awards granted by the Law School to LL.M. candidates. In making these awards, the Law School devotes particular attention to candidates' academic and professional records, personal statements, and demonstrated commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and service. The Law School also awards financial aid in the form of grants to some LL.M. candidates.

The deadline to apply for funding assistance is February 1.

Vanderbilt Law School is a top ranked law school located on the beautiful Vanderbilt University campus set in the urban heart of Nashville, Tennessee. The law school combines the advantages of a stimulating university community, a top-tier faculty, a small, carefully selected student body, and a sophisticated, vibrant city. Vanderbilt Law School attracts law students seeking a first-rate academic institution that also affords an excellent quality of life.

Vanderbilt LL.M. students choose their courses from the law school's extensive curriculum to concentrate in areas including Law & Business; Law & Innovation, Litigation & Dispute Resolution; Intellectual Property; International Legal Studies; Energy, Environment and Land Use; and Criminal Justice. Students interested in focusing on Corporate Law have the opportunity to earn the LL.M. degree with a certificate of specialization in Law & Business.

LL.M. students are fully integrated into the Vanderbilt community, studying alongside American and other international students in the J.D. program. Vanderbilt's small LL.M. program size makes it possible for students to enjoy greater access to faculty and promotes a sense of community that is one of Vanderbilt's most distinguishing attributes. An extensive network of more than 8,500 alumni in 49 states, DC, three US territories, and 32 foreign nations reflects the school's national and international reach.

SPECIALIZATIONS & POPULAR PROGRAMS

Vanderbilt offers three LL.M. program options: a general LL.M. degree, a specialized LL.M. in Law and Business, and a Thesis Track option. All program options offer the courses required to qualify for the New York bar exam.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Vanderbilt Law School awards merit-based scholarships to LL.M. students each year. Recipients are identified during the selection process and notified after admission to the program. All admitted candidates are considered for scholarship awards. There is no application form required in order to be considered for a scholarship award.

Founded in 1966, Western State College of Law at Westcliff University is the longest-running law school in Orange County, California. It is known for small classes and personal attention. The LLM in US Legal Studies at Western State teaches foreign-educated lawyers and law graduates the foundations of American law. Graduates of the program will gain a comprehensive understanding of the U.S. legal system, know the basics of several specific areas of American law, learn the ethics that apply to advocates, perform modern American legal research, and gain the legal analysis skills crucial for advocacy. Additionally, the program includes simulated legal scenarios where you can apply your knowledge and skills in a practical setting. This hands-on experience prepares you for the real-world practice of law in the United States. The program is a full immersion experience that places you in the same in-person classes as J.D. students, and you will learn from experienced faculty who are experts in their fields and who will challenge you to think critically and creatively. In addition, you will benefit from your classmates' diverse perspectives and backgrounds from different countries and cultures. The program is designed to satisfy the educational requirements of the California state bar for foreign-educated attorneys. Graduates will be prepared to work in an American law office or similar setting.
