

Thomas Jefferson Fund

Addressing 21st-Century Challenges through Transatlantic Research

THE 2022 CALL FOR PROPOSALS IS NOW OPEN!

The Thomas Jefferson Fund supports cooperation among the most promising young French and American researchers, and fosters forward-looking research that addresses the most pressing global challenges.

Open to all disciplines and to interdisciplinary STEM-Humanities/Social Sciences projects

Deadline:
February 24, 2022

Project launch:
September/October 2022

Maximum of $20,000 for 2 years per project

The Thomas Jefferson Fund seeks the most diverse pool of applicants and strongly encourages the participation of underrepresented researchers

The most innovative projects involving transatlantic mobility, collaborative research activities, organization of joint workshops or conferences, publication of joint articles, and participation of younger researchers (PhDs) will receive the highest priority.

The grant covers travel expenses between France and the US, accommodation costs and a part of the organizational costs of joint conferences or publications.

Partner researchers are encouraged to obtain « in kind » and/or « in cash » co-funding from their institutions or from other sources of funding to cover all other types of expenses necessary to the successful implementation of the joint research project.

Proposals must be jointly submitted by one American researcher and one French researcher, with mid- to long-term positions at a research or higher education institution in the United States or in France (post-doctorate level, assistant or associate professor, maître de conférences or chargé de recherche).
